

Published Date:	Monday 1st June, 2020	Publication:	Deccan Chronicle [Hyderabad]
Journalist:	Bureau	Page No:	7
MAV/CCM:	161,996/9.04	Circulation:	505,261

KEC International to speed up automation

With the mass migration of labourers becoming a cause of concern, engineering firm KEC International has decided to adopt mechanisation and automation to compensate for the shortage of workers. "We have to live with this migration and we don't think they will return any time soon. Also, we are not sure if we would get the same set of skilled labourers," KEC's MD & CEO Vimal Kejriwal said.